

GDRA Texas ProStart Hunger Awareness Volunteer Day Saturday, May 19, 2012

The mission of the North Texas Food Bank is to seek to eliminate Hunger by distributing food and grocery products through a network of nonprofit organizations while providing education and increasing community awareness on issues of Hunger.

THE GDRA HAS RESERVED 100 VOLUNTEER SPOTS FOR OUR TEXAS PROSTART STUDENTS & EDUCATORS AND EDUCATION COMMITTEE MEMBERS TO EXPERIENCE WHAT IT TAKES TO PROVIDE MEALS TO THE HUNGRY IN NORTH TEXAS. PLEASE JOIN US FOR THIS UNFORGETTABLE, EDUCATIONAL, AND WORTHWHILE EXPERIENCE.

This opportunity is available for the first 100 people to commit to participation.

To reserve your spot, contact:
Candice Sullinger
csullinger@gdra.org

The warehouse volunteer experience includes sorting & boxing/ bagging food for distribution to 300 Member Agencies. Volunteers are asked to participate in tasks ranging from sorting incoming donations & unsalable items to an assembly line, which produces boxes for Food 4 Kids and Senior Food programs.
